

COMMUNITY HOUSING 2023 SYDNEY MASONIC CENTRE | 10 - 11 MAY 2023

Wednesday 10 May 2023 8:00

8:00	REGISTATION OPEN
	GRAND LODGE Opening Plenary - Day One
09:00 - 09:15
09:00 - 09:15	welcome to Country
	Metropolitan Local Aboriginal Land Council (MLALC)  Uncle Michael West, Metrion Local Aboriginal Land Council
09:15 - 09:30	Performance
	Sydney Street Choir
09:30 - 09:40	Welcome from the CHIA NSW Chief Executive Officer
09:30 - 09:40		Mark Degotardi	CEO, CHIA NSW
		Di
09:40 - 10:30	Plenary Session 1 Ashley Fell, Director of Advisory, McCrindle Research
		SPONSORED BY	: Home In Place
10:30 - 11:00		MORN	ING TEA
	GRAND LODGE	IONIC	DORIC	CORINTHIAN
			SPONSORED BY: Lee Road Consulting
	Investment opportunities in the Housing Australia Future Fund landscape	International perspectives: How New Zealand is addressing its social housing waiting list	Regional Housing	Together Home and what's next for Housing First in NSW?
			The Greater Cities Commission has transitioned from strategic	The benefits (and cost effectiveness) of Housing First programs like
	Housing is on the cusp of financial innovation and a period of historic investment in social and affordable housing. But will this be	Once considered a leader in social housing, New Zealand's waiting list has increased almost fivefold in the past five years. This session	planning for Greater Sydney to the broader Six Cities Region. Does this model offer opportunities for planning for regions more	Together Home have been acknowledged over many years. This session will consider what is next for it and other Housing First another investment hit like the National Building Economic Stimulus Program or can we transform the historic investment into industry	will look at the factors driving this, and the measures to address it including reforms allowing upzoning and higher-density housing,	effectively? In Regional NSW, how can we leverage a clustering or regional city approach to better plan for social and affordable	programs in NSW. It will also consider how social impact bonds have been used to fund homelessness programs in Australia, and system change? This session will explore opportunities and	and the role of community housing providers in delivering new	housing across NSW?	including Foyer Central, and whether they could work for Housing constraints in the Housing Australia Future Fund and state	homes. The session will also examine New Zealand's social housing purchasing strategy, including the income related rent subsidy, and	Building on the experience of the Special Activation Precincts,	First programs in NSW.
	initiatives from NSW and Queensland to transform housing.	how it impacts the delivery of social housing, particularly for	Regional Planning for housing and development, and the current	Speakers:
11:00 - 12:15	Speakers: Charles Northcote, CEO, BlueCHP	community housing providers.	Key Worker Housing Initiative, this session will aim to explore a new way of planning for housing in the regions.	Sally Regan, General Manager - Specialist Housing and Impact, Hume
1	Emma Nicholson, A/Head of Policy and Innovation, NSW Land and	Speakers:		Dusanka Mrdjenovic, Manager, Housing Independence, Hume
1	Housing Corporation Rowena Johnston, National Housing Finance and Investment	Paul Gilberd, CEO, Community Housing Aotearoa Cate Kearney, Chief Executive, Ōtautahi Community Housing Trust	Speakers: Kim Sinclair, CEO, SEARMS	Community Housing Humair Ahmad, Director Community Housing, Department of
1	Corporation (NHFIC)	Kay Saville-Smith, Research Director, CRESA - Centre for Research,	Maree McKenzie, CEO, Homes North	Communities and Justice
	Ryan Murphy, Director, Real Estate Strategy, Queensland Investment Corporation	Evaluation and Social Assessment	David Witherdin, Chief Executive, Northern Rivers Reconstruction	Patrick Bollen, Manager Impact Investing, Social Ventures Australia
		Facilitator: Heather Dear, Senior Policy Officer, CHIA NSW	Adam Zarth, Executive Director, Business Illawarra	Facilitator: Nada Nasser, State Director (NSW/ACT/VIC), Mission Australia
	Facilitator: Carrie Hamilton, Housing Action Network		Facilitator: Michele Adair, CEO, Housing Trust	Australia
12:15 - 13:15		LU	NCH
	GRAND LODGE	101115	DORIC	CODINITIIAN
	SPONSORED BY: Landcom	IONIC	SPONSORED BY: Community Housing Ltd	CORINTHIAN
	Building momentum: Local Government leadership and models to do more	Tenant satisfaction: Lessons learned from the Australian and international context	Aboriginal outcomes and innovation	Unlocking challenging behaviours: You are more in control than you think to do more	International context	Community housing providers (CHPs) are committed to sustaining	you think
	Councils are leaping ahead, establishing new AH schemes and	Tenant satisfaction and outcomes are integral to the social purpose of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by	Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community housing tenancies	This session will explore techniques to manage challenging
	investing in new projects. Who is leading the way? What have they learned? How do we spark the next wave? This session will compare	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drivers of tenant satisfaction and inform		behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with challenging behaviours and how to investing in new projects. Who is leading the way? What have they	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by	Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies is the foundation to	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for investing in new projects. Who is leading the woy? What have they learned? How do we spark the next wave? This session will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, recognising different priorities and values).	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drivers of tenant satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement? This session will present CHIA NSW's data on tenant satisfaction,	Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies is the foundation to building indusive communities.  This session will examine new approaches to sustaining tenancies by building portnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with chollenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A session will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for
13:15 - 14:30	investing in new projects. Who is leading the wap? What have they learned? How do we spork the next wave? This session will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, recognising different priorities and values).  This session will be facilitated to allow for an open conversation on local councils' priorities, what is achievable under different models,	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drivers of tenant satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement?  This session will present CHIA NSW's data on tenant satisfaction, with an emphasis on tenants' rights. It will feature case studies from CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outlined  The CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outlined  The CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outlined  The CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outlined  The CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outlined  The CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outlined  The CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and The CHPs  The C	Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies in the foundation to building inclusive communities.  This session will examine new approaches to sustaining tenancies by building partnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal organisations, backed by a new Memorandum of Understanding between CHPs and Aboriginal Tenants Advice and Advaccacy	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with challenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A session will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for further sharing of ideas.
13:15 - 14:30	investing in new projects. Who is leading the wap? What have they learned? How do we spark the next wave? This sersion will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, recognising different priorities and values).  This session will be facilitated to allow for an open conversation on local councils' priorities, what is achievable under different models, and what would be required to support new supply at a more	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drivers of theant satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement?  This session will present CHIA NSW's data on tenant satisfaction, with an emphasis on tenants' rights. It will feature case studies from CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outling Jessons learned and ways to improve overall satisfaction. The	Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies is the foundation to building inclusive communities.  This session will examine new approaches to sustaining tenancies by building partnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal organisations, backed by a new Memorandum of Understanding	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with challenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A ession will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for further sharing of ideas.  Bonnie Souter, Consultant Specialist Trainer, CHIA NSW
13:15 - 14:30	investing in new projects. Who is leading the wap? What have they learned? How do we spark the next wave? This season will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, reconsising different priorities and values.)  This session will be facilitated to allow for an open conversation on local councils' priorities, what is achievable under different models, and what would be required to support new supply at a more significant scale.	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drivers of tenant satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement?  This session will present CHIA NSW's data on tenant satisfaction, with an emphasis on tenants' rights. It will feature case studies from CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outlined  The CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outlined  The CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outlined  The CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outlined  The CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outlined  The CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outlined  The CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and The CHPs  The C	Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies is the foundation to building inclusive communities.  This session will examine new approaches to sustaining tenancies by building partnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal organisations, backed by a new Memorandum of Understanding between CHPs and Aboriginal Tenants Advice and Advocacy Services.  Speakers:	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with childenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A ession will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for further sharing of ideas.  Bonnie Souter, Consultant Specialist Trainer, CHIA NSW Simon Wade, Director – Sector Development, ACHIA
13:15 - 14:30	investing in new projects. Who is leading the wap? What have they learned? How do we spark the next wave? This sersion will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, recognising different priorities and values).  This session will be facilitated to allow for an open conversation on local councils' priorities, what is achievable under different models, and what would be required to support new supply at a more	of community housing providers (CHP), I how can data be used by CHPs to understand the drivers of tenant satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement?  This session will present CHIA NSW's data an tenant satisfaction, with an emphasis on tenants' rights. It will feature case studies in CHPs in Australia (INSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outlining lessons learned and ways to improve overall satisfaction. The session will conduct by considering how best practice examples can	Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies in the foundation to building inclusive communities.  This session will examine new approaches to sustaining tenancies by building partnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal organisations, backed by a new Memorandum of Understanding between CHPs and Aboriginal Tenants Advice and Advacccy Services.	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with challenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A ession will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for further sharing of ideas.  Bonnie Souter, Consultant Specialist Trainer, CHIA NSW
13:15 - 14:30	investing in new projects. Who is leading the wap? What have they learned? How do we spark the next wave? This sersion will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, recognising different priorities and values).  This session will be facilitated to allow for an open conversation on local councils priorities, what is achievable under different models, and what would be required to support new supply at a more significant scale.  Speakers:  Paul Tillprook, Director, Paxon Leonie King, CEO, CITy West	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drivers of theant satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement?  This session will present CHIA NSW's data on tenant satisfaction, with an emphasis on tenants' rights. It will feature case studies from CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outling lessons learned and ways to improve overall satisfaction. The session will conduct by considering how best practice examples can be utilized to inform a new and innovative approach in NSW.  Speaker:  Lydia Dlaboha, Deputy CEO, Housing Quality Network (UK)	Aboriginal and Torres Struit Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies in the foundation to building inclusive communities.  This session will examine new approaches to sustaining tenancies by building partnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal organisations, backed by a new Memorandum of Understanding between CHPs and Aboriginal Tenants Advices and Advacccy Services.  Speakers:  Speakers:  Paul Teerman, Aboriginal Partnerships Specialist, CHIA NSW Jim Allen, Manager, Murra Mia, Murra Mia Aboriginal Tenants Advaccay Services.	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with childenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A ession will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for further sharing of ideas.  Bonnie Souter, Consultant Specialist Trainer, CHIA NSW Simon Wade, Director – Sector Development, ACHIA
13:15 - 14:30	investing in new projects. Who is leading the way? What have they learned? How do we sport the next wave? This sersion will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, reconsing different priorities and values).  This session will be facilitated to allow for an open conversation on local councils' priorities, what is achievable under different models, and what vould be required to support new supply at a more significant scale.  Speakers:  Speakers:	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drivers of theant satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement?  This session will present CHIA NSW's data on tenant satisfaction, with an emphasis on tenants' rights. It will feature case studies from CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outling lessons learned and ways to improve overall satisfaction. The session will conduct by considering how best practice examples can be utilized to inform a new and innovative approach in NSW.  Speaker:  Lydia Diaboha, Deputy CEO, Housing Quality Network (UK) Adam West, Head of Business Services, CHIA NSW.	Aboriginal and Torres Struit Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies is the foundation to building inclusive communities.  This session will examine new approaches to sustaining tenancies by building partnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal organisations, backed by a new Memorandum of Understanding between CHPs and Aboriginal Tenants Advices and Advacccy Services.  Speakers:  Speakers:  Paul Teerman, Aboriginal Partnerships Specialist, CHIA NSW Jim Allen, Manager, Murra Mia, Murra Mia Aboriginal Tenants Advaccay Services Carolyn Obhetty, CEO, Argiyle Housing Mirrada Serkinic, Executive Manager – People, Performance and	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with childenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A ession will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for further sharing of ideas.  Bonnie Souter, Consultant Specialist Trainer, CHIA NSW Simon Wade, Director – Sector Development, ACHIA
13:15 - 14:30	investing in new projects. Who is leading the way? What have they learned? How do we spark the next wave? This sersion will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, recognising different priorities and values).  This session will be facilitated to allow for an open conversation on local councils' priorities, what is achievable under different models, and what would be required to support new supply at a more significant scale.  Speakers:  Paul Tilbrook, Director, Paxon Leonie King, CEO, City West  Le Collyer, Strategic Partnerships Manager - AH, Landcom	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drives of themat satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement?  This session will present CHIA NSW's data on tenant satisfaction, with an emphasis on tenants' rights. It will fleature case studies from CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outling lessons learned and ways to improve overall satisfaction. The session will conclude by considering how best practice examples can be utilised to inform a new and innovative approach in NSW.  Speaker:  Lydia Diaboha, Deputy CEO, Housing Quality Network (UK) Adam West, Head of Business Services, CHIA NSW.  Facilitator: Sarah Trant, National Manager, Communications &	Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies is the foundation to building inclusive communities.  This session will examine new approaches to sustaining tenancies by building partnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal organisations, backed by a new Memorandum of Understanding between CHPs and Aboriginal Tenants Advice and Advocacy Services.  Speakers:  Speakers:  Paul Teerman, Aboriginal Partnerships Specialist, CHIA NSW Jim Allen, Manager, Murra Mia, Murra Mia Aboriginal Tenants Advocacy Service Carolyn Doberty, CEO, Argyle Housing	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with childenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A ession will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for further sharing of ideas.  Bonnie Souter, Consultant Specialist Trainer, CHIA NSW Simon Wade, Director – Sector Development, ACHIA
13:15 - 14:30	investing in new projects. Who is leading the wap? What have they learned? How do we spark the next wave? This sersion will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, recognising different priorities and values).  This session will be facilitated to allow for an open conversation on local councils priorities, what is achievable under different models, and what would be required to support new supply at a more significant scale.  Speakers:  Paul Tilbrook, Director, Paxon Leonie King, CEO, City West Liz Collyer, Strategic Partnerships Manager - AH, Landcom Mayor Michael you, Byron Shire	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drivers of theant satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement?  This session will present CHIA NSW's data on tenant satisfaction, with an emphasis on tenants' rights. It will feature case studies from CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outling lessons learned and ways to improve overall satisfaction. The session will conduct by considering how best practice examples can be utilised to inform a new and innovative approach in NSW.  Speaker:  Lydia Diaboha, Deputy CEO, Housing Quality Network (UK) Adam West, Head of Business Services, CHIA NSW.	Aboriginal and Torres Struit Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies is the foundation to building inclusive communities.  This session will examine new approaches to sustaining tenancies by building partnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal organisations, backed by a new Memorandum of Understanding between CHPs and Aboriginal Tenants Advices and Advacccy Services.  Speakers:  Speakers:  Paul Teerman, Aboriginal Partnerships Specialist, CHIA NSW Jim Allen, Manager, Murra Mia, Murra Mia Aboriginal Tenants Advaccay Services Carolyn Obhetty, CEO, Argiyle Housing Mirrada Serkinic, Executive Manager – People, Performance and	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with childenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A ession will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for further sharing of ideas.  Bonnie Souter, Consultant Specialist Trainer, CHIA NSW Simon Wade, Director – Sector Development, ACHIA
13:15 - 14:30	investing in new projects. Who is leading the wap? What have they learned? How do we spark the next wave? This session will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, recognising different priorities and values).  This session will be facilitated to allow for an open conversation on local councils' priorities, what is achievable under different models, and what would be required to support new supply at a more significant scale.  Speakers:  Paul Tilbrook, Director, Paxon Leonie King, CFD, City West LIZ Collyer, Strategic Partnerships Manager - AH, Landcom Mayor Michael Lyon, Byron Shire Cr Dr Elizabeth Adamczyk, Councillor, City of Newcastle	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drives of themat satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement?  This session will present CHIA NSW's data on tenant satisfaction, with an emphasis on tenants' rights. It will fleature case studies from CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outling lessons learned and ways to improve overall satisfaction. The session will conclude by considering how best practice examples can be utilised to inform a new and innovative approach in NSW.  Speaker:  Lydia Diaboha, Deputy CEO, Housing Quality Network (UK) Adam West, Head of Business Services, CHIA NSW.  Facilitator: Sarah Trant, National Manager, Communications &	Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies is the foundation to building inclusive communities.  This session will examine new approaches to sustaining tenancies by building partnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal organisations, backed by a new Memorandum of Understanding between CHPs and Aboriginal Tenants Advices and Advacccy Services.  Speakers:  Speakers:  Paul Teerman, Aboriginal Partnerships Specialist, CHIA NSW Jim Allen, Manager, Murra Mia, Murra Mia Aboriginal Tenants Advaccay Services Carolyn Doherty, CEO, Argyle Housing Miranda Serkinic, Executive Manager – People, Performance and Capability, Housing Trust	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with childenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A ession will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for further sharing of ideas.  Bonnie Souter, Consultant Specialist Trainer, CHIA NSW Simon Wade, Director – Sector Development, ACHIA
	investing in new projects. Who is leading the wap? What have they learned? How do we spark the next wave? This session will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, recognising different priorities and values).  This session will be facilitated to allow for an open conversation on local councils' priorities, what is achievable under different models, and what would be required to support new supply at a more significant scale.  Speakers:  Paul Tilbrook, Director, Paxon Leonie King, CFD, City West LIZ Collyer, Strategic Partnerships Manager - AH, Landcom Mayor Michael Lyon, Byron Shire Cr Dr Elizabeth Adamczyk, Councillor, City of Newcastle	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drivers of tenent satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement?  This session will present CHIA NSW's data on tenant satisfaction, with an emphasis on tenants' rights. It will floature case studies from CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outling lessons learned and ways to improve averal satisfaction. The session will conclude by considering how best practice examples can be utilised to inform a new and innovative approach in NSW.  Speaker:  Lydia Dilaboha, Deputy CEO, Housing Quality Network (UK) Adam West, Head of Business Services, CHIA NSW  Facilitator: Sarah Trant, National Manager, Communications & Engagement, Mission Australia Housing	Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies in the foundation to building inclusive communities.  This session will examine new approaches to sustaining tenancies by building partnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal organisations, backed by a new Memorandum of Understanding between CHPs and Aboriginal Tenants Advices and Advacccy Services.  Speakers:  Speakers:  Speakers:  Aboriginal Partnerships Specialist, CHIA NSW Jim Allen, Manager, Murra Mia, Murra Mia Aboriginal Tenants Advaccay Service Carolyn Doherty, CEO, Argive Housing Miranda Serkinic, Executive Manager – People, Performance and Capability, Housing Trust  Facilitator: Charlie Trindall, Operations Manager MLAHMC Ltd	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with childenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A ession will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for further sharing of ideas.  Bonnie Souter, Consultant Specialist Trainer, CHIA NSW Simon Wade, Director – Sector Development, ACHIA
13:15 - 14:30 14:30 - 15:00	investing in new projects. Who is leading the wap? What have they learned? How do we spark the next wave? This session will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, recognising different priorities and values).  This session will be facilitated to allow for an open conversation on local councils' priorities, what is achievable under different models, and what would be required to support new supply at a more significant scale.  Speakers:  Paul Tilbrook, Director, Paxon Leonie King, CFD, City West LIZ Collyer, Strategic Partnerships Manager - AH, Landcom Mayor Michael Lyon, Byron Shire Cr Dr Elizabeth Adamczyk, Councillor, City of Newcastle	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drives of tenent satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement?  This session will present CHIA NSW's data on tenant satisfaction, with an emphasis on tenants' rights. It will feature case studies from CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outling lessons learned and ways to improve overall satisfaction. The session will conclude by considering how best practice examples can be utilised to inform a new and innovative approach in NSW.  Speaker:  Lydia Diaboha, Deputy CEO, Housing Quality Network (UK) Adam West, Head of Business Services, CHIA NSW  Facilitator: Sarah Trant, National Manager, Communications & Engagement, Mission Australia Housing	Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies is the foundation to building inclusive communities.  This session will examine new approaches to sustaining tenancies by building partnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal organisations, backed by a new Memorandum of Understanding between CHPs and Aboriginal Tenants Advice and Advacoccy Services.  Speakers:  Paul Teerman, Aboriginal Partnerships Specialist, CHIA NSW Jim Allen, Manager, Murra Mia, Murra Mia Aboriginal Tenants Advaccay Service Carolyn Obhetty, CEO, Argyle Housing Miranda Serkinic, Executive Manager – People, Performance and Capability, Housing Trust  Facilitator: Charlie Trindall, Operations Manager MLAHMC Ltd	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with childenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A ession will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for further sharing of ideas.  Bonnie Souter, Consultant Specialist Trainer, CHIA NSW Simon Wade, Director – Sector Development, ACHIA
	investing in new projects. Who is leading the wap? What have they learned? How do we spark the next wave? This session will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, recognising different priorities and values).  This session will be facilitated to allow for an open conversation on local councils' priorities, what is achievable under different models, and what would be required to support new supply at a more significant scale.  Speakers:  Paul Tilbrook, Director, Paxon Leonie King, CFD, City West LIZ Collyer, Strategic Partnerships Manager - AH, Landcom Mayor Michael Lyon, Byron Shire Cr Dr Elizabeth Adamczyk, Councillor, City of Newcastle	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drives of tenent satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement?  This session will present CHIA NSW's data on tenant satisfaction, with an emphasis on tenants' rights. It will feature case studies from CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outling lessons learned and ways to improve overall satisfaction. The session will conclude by considering how best practice examples can be utilised to inform a new and innovative approach in NSW.  Speaker:  Lydia Diaboha , Deputy CEO, Housing Quality Network (UK)  Adam West, Head of Business Services, CHIA NSW  Facilitator: Sarah Trant, National Manager, Communications & Engagement, Mission Australia Housing	Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies is the foundation to buildings inclusive communities.  This session will examine new approaches to sustaining tenancies by building partnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal organisations, backed by a new Memorandum of Understanding between CHPs and Aboriginal Tenants Advice and Advacoccy Services.  Speakers:  Paul Teerman, Aboriginal Partnerships Specialist, CHIA NSW Jim Allen, Manager, Murra Mia, Murra Mia Aboriginal Tenants Advaccy Service Carolyn Oberty, CEO, Argule Housing Miranda Serkinic, Executive Manager – People, Performance and Capability, Housing Trust  Facilitator: Charlie Trindall, Operations Manager MLAHMC Ltd	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with childenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A ession will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for further sharing of ideas.  Bonnie Souter, Consultant Specialist Trainer, CHIA NSW Simon Wade, Director – Sector Development, ACHIA
	investing in new projects. Who is leading the wap? What have they learned? How do we spark the next wave? This session will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, recognising different priorities and values).  This session will be facilitated to allow for an open conversation on local councils' priorities, what is achievable under different models, and what would be required to support new supply at a more significant scale.  Speakers:  Paul Tilbrook, Director, Paxon Leonie King, CFD, City West LIZ Collyer, Strategic Partnerships Manager - AH, Landcom Mayor Michael Lyon, Byron Shire Cr Dr Elizabeth Adamczyk, Councillor, City of Newcastle	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drives of tenent satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement?  This session will present CHIA NSW's data on tenant satisfaction, with an emphasis on tenants' rights. It will feature case studies from CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outling lessons learned and ways to improve overall satisfaction. The session will conclude by considering how best practice examples can be utilised to inform a new and innovative approach in NSW.  Speaker:  Lydia Diaboha , Deputy CEO, Housing Quality Network (UK)  Adam West, Head of Business Services, CHIA NSW  Facilitator: Sarah Trant, National Manager, Communications & Engagement, Mission Australia Housing	Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies is the foundation to building inclusive communities.  This session will examine new approaches to sustaining tenancies by building partnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal organisations, backed by a new Memorandum of Understanding between CHPs and Aboriginal Tenants Advice and Advacoccy Services.  Speakers:  Paul Teerman, Aboriginal Partnerships Specialist, CHIA NSW Jim Allen, Manager, Murra Mia, Murra Mia Aboriginal Tenants Advaccay Service Carolyn Obhetty, CEO, Argyle Housing Miranda Serkinic, Executive Manager – People, Performance and Capability, Housing Trust  Facilitator: Charlie Trindall, Operations Manager MLAHMC Ltd	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with childenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A ession will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for further sharing of ideas.  Bonnie Souter, Consultant Specialist Trainer, CHIA NSW Simon Wade, Director – Sector Development, ACHIA
	investing in new projects. Who is leading the wap? What have they learned? How do we spark the next wave? This session will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, recognising different priorities and values).  This session will be facilitated to allow for an open conversation on local councils' priorities, what is achievable under different models, and what would be required to support new supply at a more significant scale.  Speakers:  Paul Tilbrook, Director, Paxon Leonie King, CFD, City West LIZ Collyer, Strategic Partnerships Manager - AH, Landcom Mayor Michael Lyon, Byron Shire Cr Dr Elizabeth Adamczyk, Councillor, City of Newcastle	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drivers of tenent satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement?  This session will present CHIA NSW's data on tenant satisfaction, with an emphasis on tenants' sights. It will floature case studies from CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outling lessons learned and ways to improve overall satisfaction. The session will conclude by considering how best practice examples can be utilised to inform a new and innovative approach in NSW.  Speaker:  Lydia Diaboha, Deputy CEO, Housing Quality Network (UK) Adam West, Head of Business Services, CHIA NSW  Facilitator: Sarah Trant, National Manager, Communications & Engagement, Mission Australia Housing  AFTERN  GRANI  Closing Plen	Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies is the foundation to buildings inclusive communities.  This session will examine new approaches to sustaining tenancies by building partnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal organisations, backed by a new Memorandum of Understanding between CHPs and Aboriginal Tenants Advice and Advacoccy Services.  Speakers:  Paul Teerman, Aboriginal Partnerships Specialist, CHIA NSW Jim Allen, Manager, Murra Mia, Murra Mia Aboriginal Tenants Advaccy Service Carolyn Oberty, CEO, Argule Housing Miranda Serkinic, Executive Manager – People, Performance and Capability, Housing Trust  Facilitator: Charlie Trindall, Operations Manager MLAHMC Ltd	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with childenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A ession will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for further sharing of ideas.  Bonnie Souter, Consultant Specialist Trainer, CHIA NSW Simon Wade, Director – Sector Development, ACHIA
	investing in new projects. Who is leading the wap? What have they learned? How do we spark the next wave? This session will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, recognising different priorities and values).  This session will be facilitated to allow for an open conversation on local councils' priorities, what is achievable under different models, and what would be required to support new supply at a more significant scale.  Speakers:  Paul Tilbrook, Director, Paxon Leonie King, CFD, City West LIZ Collyer, Strategic Partnerships Manager - AH, Landcom Mayor Michael Lyon, Byron Shire Cr Dr Elizabeth Adamczyk, Councillor, City of Newcastle	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drivers of tenent satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement?  This session will present CHIA NSW's data on tenant satisfaction, with an emphasis on tenants' rights. It will fleature case studies from CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outling lessons learned and ways to improve averal satisfaction. The session will conclude by considering how best practice examples can be utilised to inform a new and innovative approach in NSW.  Speaker:  Lydia Dilaboha , Deputy CEO, Housing Quality Network (UK) Adam West, Head of Business Services, CHIA NSW  Facilitator: Sarah Trant, National Manager, Communications & Engagement, Mission Australia Housing  AFTERN  GRANI  Closing Plen	Aboriginal and Torres Struit Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies is the foundation to building inclusive communities.  This session will examine new approaches to sustaining tenancies by building partnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal organisations, backed by a new Memorandum of Understanding between CHPs and Aboriginal Tenants Advices and Advacccy Services.  Speakers:  Paul Teerman, Aboriginal Partnerships Specialist, CHIA NSW Jim Allen, Manager, Murra Mia, Murra Mia Aboriginal Tenants Advocacy Services Carolyn Doherty, CEO, Argyle Housing Miranda Serkinic, Executive Manager – People, Performance and Capability, Housing Trust  Facilitator: Charlie Trindall, Operations Manager MLAHMC Ltd	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with childenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A ession will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for further sharing of ideas.  Bonnie Souter, Consultant Specialist Trainer, CHIA NSW Simon Wade, Director – Sector Development, ACHIA
	investing in new projects. Who is leading the way? What have they learned? How do we spark the next wave? This sexion will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, recognising different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils version will be facilitated to allow for an open conversation on local councils 'priorities, whot is achievable under different models, and what would be required to support new supply at a more significant scale.  Speakers: Paul Tilbrook, Director, Paxon Leonie King, CEQ, City West Lit Collyer, Strategie Partnerships Manager - AH, Landcom Mayor Michael Lyon, Byron Shire Cr Dr Elizabeth Adamczyk, Councillor, City of Newcastle  Facilitator: Will Roden  The Federal Government's housing initiatives, including the Housin	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drivers of tenant satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement?  This session will present CHIA NSW's data on tenant satisfaction, with an emphasion entenant's plants. It will fleature case studies from CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outling lessons learned and ways to improve overall satisfaction. The session will conclude by considering how best practice examples can be utilised to inform a new and innovative approach in NSW.  Speaker:  Lydia Diaboha, Deputy CEO, Housing Quality Network (UK) Adam West, Head of Business Services, CHIA NSW Facilitator: Sarah Trant, National Manager, Communications & Engagement, Mission Australia Housing  Closing Plen  SPONSORED E  Housing State of Play - Oppor	Aboriginal and Torres Struit Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies is the foundation to building inclusive communities.  This session will examine new approaches to sustaining tenancies by building partnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal organisations, backed by a new Memorandum of Understanding between CHPs and Aboriginal Tenants Advices and Advacoccy Services.  Speakers:  Speakers:  Speakers:  Speakers:  Speakers:  Carolyn Oberty, CEO, Arglye Housing Mirand Saerkinic, Executive Manager – People, Performance and Capability, Housing Trust  Facilitator: Charlie Trindall, Operations Manager MLAHMC Ltd  DON TEA  LODGE  ary - Day One  Y: Paxon Group  unitles for Community Housing  cont opportunities for the community housing sector. This session will	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with chollenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A ession will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for further sharing of ideas.  Bonnie Souter, Consultant Specialist Trainer, CHIA NSW Simon Wade, Director – Sector Development, ACHIA  Facilitator: Catherine Tracey, Head of Learning and Development  Il cover the state of play on the range of housing reforms, and how
14:30 - 15:00	investing in new projects. Who is leading the way? What have they learned? How do we spark the next wave? This sexion will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, recognising different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils version will be facilitated to allow for an open conversation on local councils 'priorities, whot is achievable under different models, and what would be required to support new supply at a more significant scale.  Speakers: Paul Tilbrook, Director, Paxon Leonie King, CEQ, City West Lit Collyer, Strategie Partnerships Manager - AH, Landcom Mayor Michael Lyon, Byron Shire Cr Dr Elizabeth Adamczyk, Councillor, City of Newcastle  Facilitator: Will Roden  The Federal Government's housing initiatives, including the Housin	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drives of themat satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement?  This session will present CHIA NSW's data on tenant satisfaction, with an emphasis on tenants' rights. It will feature case studies from CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outling lessons learned and ways to improve overall satisfaction. The session will conclude by considering how best practice examples can be utilised to inform a new and innovative approach in NSW.  Speaker:  Lydia Diaboha , Deputy CEO, Housing Quality Network (UK) Adam West, Head of Business Services, CHIA NSW  Facilitator: Sarah Trant, National Manager, Communications & Engagement, Mission Australia Housing  AFTERN  GRANI  Closing Plen  SPONSORED B  Housing State of Play - Opport of Australia Ford Play - Opport of Australia Ford of Play - Opport of Australia Ford of Play - Opport of Australia Ford Play - Opport of Play - Oppor	Aboriginal and Torres Struit Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies is the foundation to building inclusive communities.  This session will examine new approaches to sustaining tenancies by building partnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal organisations, backed by a new Memorandum of Understanding between CHPs and Aboriginal Tenants Advices and Advocacy Services.  Speakers: Paul Teerman, Aboriginal Partnerships Specialist, CHIA NSW Jim Allen, Manager, Murra Mia, Murra Mia Aboriginal Tenants Advocacy Services Carolyn Obhetty, CEO, Argyle Housing Miranda Serkinic, Secutive Manager – People, Performance and Capability, Housing Trust  Facilitator: Charlie Trindall, Operations Manager MLAHMC Ltd  DON TEA  DODGE  ary - Day One  Y: Paxon Group  unities for Community Housing  canto apportunities for the community housing sector. This session will from the UK, and how these could be applied in Australia to deliver her met West on the West on the Vest on the Vest on the Vest on the Vest on the West on the Vest on Vest on the Vest on Vest on the Vest on the Vest on Vest on the Vest on the Vest on V	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with chollenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A ession will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for further sharing of ideas.  Bonnie Souter, Consultant Specialist Trainer, CHIA NSW Simon Wade, Director – Sector Development, ACHIA  Facilitator: Catherine Tracey, Head of Learning and Development  Il cover the state of play on the range of housing reforms, and how
	investing in new projects. Who is leading the way? What have they learned? How do we spark the next wave? This sexion will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, recognising different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils version will be facilitated to allow for an open conversation on local councils 'priorities, whot is achievable under different models, and what would be required to support new supply at a more significant scale.  Speakers: Paul Tilbrook, Director, Paxon Leonie King, CEQ, City West Lit Collyer, Strategie Partnerships Manager - AH, Landcom Mayor Michael Lyon, Byron Shire Cr Dr Elizabeth Adamczyk, Councillor, City of Newcastle  Facilitator: Will Roden  The Federal Government's housing initiatives, including the Housin	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drives of tenent satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement?  This session will present CHIA NSW's data on tenant satisfaction, with an emphasis on tenants' rights. It will fleature case studies from CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outling lessons learned and ways to improve overall satisfaction. The session will conclude by considering how best practice examples can be utilised to inform a new and innovative approach in NSW.  Speaker:  Lydia Diaboha , Deputy CEO, Housing Quality Network (UK) Adam West, Head of Business Services, CHIA NSW  Facilitator: Sarah Trant, National Manager, Communications & Engagement, Mission Australia Housing  AFTERN  GRANI  Closing Plen  SPONSORED B  Housing State of Play - Opport of Australia Future Fund and National Housing Accord, present signification and offordable housing in NSW. It will also include observations Future Fund and National Housing Accord, present signification and offordable housing in NSW. It will also include observations Future Fund and National Housing Accord, present signification and State of Play - Opport of Play - Oppor	Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies is the foundation to building inclusive communities.  This session will examine new approaches to sustaining tenancies by building partnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal organisations, backed by a new Memorandum of Understanding between CHPs and Aboriginal Tenants Advicacy Services.  Speakers:  Paul Teerman, Aboriginal Partnerships Specialist, CHIA NSW Jim Allen, Manager, Murra Mia, Murra Mia Aboriginal Tenants Advocacy Services Carolyn Doherty, CEO, Argle Housing Miranda Serkinic, Executive Manager – People, Performance and Capability, Housing Trust  Facilitator: Charlie Trindall, Operations Manager MLAHMC Ltd  DON TEA  LODGE  Ty - Day One  V: Paxon Group  unities for Community Housing cont opportunities for the community housing sector. This session will form the UK, and how these could be applied in Australia to deliver honoral Housing Accord.	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with chollenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A ession will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for further sharing of ideas.  Bonnie Souter, Consultant Specialist Trainer, CHIA NSW Simon Wade, Director – Sector Development, ACHIA  Facilitator: Catherine Tracey, Head of Learning and Development  Il cover the state of play on the range of housing reforms, and how
14:30 - 15:00	investing in new projects. Who is leading the way? What have they learned? How do we spark the next wave? This sexion will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, recognising different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils will be facilitated to allow for an open conversation on local councils 'priorities, whot is achievable under different models, and what would be required to support new supply at a more significant scale.  Speakers: Paul Tilbrook, Director, Paxon Leonie King, CEQ, City West Lit Collyer, Strategie Partnerships Manager - AH, Landcom Mayor Michael Lyon, Byron Shire Cr Dr Elizabeth Adamczyk, Councillor, City of Newcastle  Facilitator: Will Roden  The Federal Government's housing initiatives, including the Housin	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drives of theant satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement?  This session will present CHIA NSW's data on tenant satisfaction, with an emphasis on tenants' rights. It will feature case studies from CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outling lessons learned and ways to improve overall satisfaction. The session will conclude by considering how best practice examples can be utilised to inform a new and innovative approach in NSW.  Speaker:  Lydia Diaboha, Deputy CEO, Housing Quality Network (UK)  Adam West, Head of Business Services, CHIA NSW  Fadilitator: Sarah Trant, National Manager, Communications & Engagement, Mission Australia Housing  AATERN  GRANT  Closing Plen  SPONSORED B  Housing State of Play - Opport g Australia Future Fund and National Housing Accord, present significial and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include observations Future Fund and National Housing Accord, present significial and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include observations Future Fund and National Housing Accord, present signification and Speakers: Simon Newport, CEO, I	Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies is the foundation to building inclusive communities.  This session will examine new approaches to sustaining tenancies by building partnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal organisations, backed by a new Memorandum of Understanding between CHPs and Aboriginal Tenants Advices and Advacccy Services.  Speakers:  Speakers:  Speakers:  Speakers:  Speakers:  Carolyn Doherty, CEO, Argyle Housing Mirand Serkinic, Executive Manager – People, Performance and Capability, Housing Trust  Facilitator: Charlie Trindall, Operations Manager MLAHMC Ltd  DON TEA  LODGE  The Community Housing Componential Service Community Housing Sector. This session will from the UK, and how these could be applied in Australia to deliver hand Housing Accord.	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with chollenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A ession will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for further sharing of ideas.  Bonnie Souter, Consultant Specialist Trainer, CHIA NSW Simon Wade, Director – Sector Development, ACHIA  Facilitator: Catherine Tracey, Head of Learning and Development  Il cover the state of play on the range of housing reforms, and how
14:30 - 15:00	investing in new projects. Who is leading the way? What have they learned? How do we spark the next wave? This sexion will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, recognising different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils will be facilitated to allow for an open conversation on local councils 'priorities, whot is achievable under different models, and what would be required to support new supply at a more significant scale.  Speakers: Paul Tilbrook, Director, Paxon Leonie King, CEQ, City West Lit Collyer, Strategie Partnerships Manager - AH, Landcom Mayor Michael Lyon, Byron Shire Cr Dr Elizabeth Adamczyk, Councillor, City of Newcastle  Facilitator: Will Roden  The Federal Government's housing initiatives, including the Housin	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drives of theant satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement?  This session will present CHIA NSW's data on tenant satisfaction, with an emphasis on tenants' rights. It will feature case studies from CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outling lessons learned and ways to improve overall satisfaction. The session will conclude by considering how best practice examples can be utilised to inform a new and innovative approach in NSW.  Speaker:  Lydia Diaboha , Deputy CEO, Housing Quality Network (UK)  Adam West, Head of Business Services, CHIA NSW  Facilitator: Sarah Trant, National Manager, Communications & Engagement, Mission Australia Housing  APITERN  GRANT  Closing Plen  SPONSORED B  Housing State of Play - Opport  g Australia Future Fund and National Housing Accord, present signification and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include observations Future Fund and National Housing Accord, present signification and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include cobservations  Future Fund and Marking Housing Accord, present signification and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include cobservations  Future Fund and Marking Accord, present signification and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include cobservations  Future Fund and Marking Accord, present signification and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include cobservations  Future Fund and Marking Accord, present signification and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include cobservations  Future Fund and Marking Accord, present signification and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include cobservations  Future Fund and Marking Accord Acco	Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies is the foundation to building inclusive communities.  This session will examine new approaches to sustaining tenancies by building partnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal organisations, backed by a new Memorandum of Understanding between CHPs and Aboriginal Tenants Advices and Advacccy Services.  Speakers:  Speakers:  Speakers:  Speakers:  Speakers:  Carolyn Doherty, CEO, Argyle Housing Miranda Serkinic, Esecutive Manager – People, Performance and Capability, Housing Trust  Facilitator: Charlie Trindall, Operations Manager MLAHMC Ltd  DON TEA  LODGE  Sy - Day One  Y: Paxon Group  unities for Community Housing cont opportunities for the community housing sector. This session will from the UK, and how these could be applied in Australia to deliver hand Housing Accord.	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with chollenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A ession will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for further sharing of ideas.  Bonnie Souter, Consultant Specialist Trainer, CHIA NSW Simon Wade, Director – Sector Development, ACHIA  Facilitator: Catherine Tracey, Head of Learning and Development  Il cover the state of play on the range of housing reforms, and how
14:30 - 15:00	investing in new projects. Who is leading the way? What have they learned? How do we spark the next wave? This sexion will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, recognising different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils will be facilitated to allow for an open conversation on local councils 'priorities, whot is achievable under different models, and what would be required to support new supply at a more significant scale.  Speakers: Paul Tilbrook, Director, Paxon Leonie King, CEQ, City West Lit Collyer, Strategie Partnerships Manager - AH, Landcom Mayor Michael Lyon, Byron Shire Cr Dr Elizabeth Adamczyk, Councillor, City of Newcastle  Facilitator: Will Roden  The Federal Government's housing initiatives, including the Housin	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drives of theant satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement?  This session will present CHIA NSW's data on tenant satisfaction, with an emphasis on tenants' rights. It will feature case studies from CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outling lessons learned and ways to improve overall satisfaction. The session will conclude by considering how best practice examples can be utilised to inform a new and innovative approach in NSW.  Speaker:  Lydia Diaboha , Deputy CEO, Housing Quality Network (UK)  Adam West, Head of Business Services, CHIA NSW  Facilitator: Sarah Trant, National Manager, Communications & Engagement, Mission Australia Housing  APITERN  GRANT  Closing Plen  SPONSORED B  Housing State of Play - Opport  g Australia Future Fund and National Housing Accord, present signification and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include observations Future Fund and National Housing Accord, present signification and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include cobservations  Future Fund and Marking Housing Accord, present signification and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include cobservations  Future Fund and Marking Accord, present signification and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include cobservations  Future Fund and Marking Accord, present signification and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include cobservations  Future Fund and Marking Accord, present signification and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include cobservations  Future Fund and Marking Accord, present signification and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include cobservations  Future Fund and Marking Accord Acco	Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies is the foundation to building inclusive communities.  This session will examine new opproaches to sustaining tenancies by building partnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal organisations, backed by a new Memorandum of Understanding between CHPs and Aboriginal Tenants Advicacy Services.  Speakers:  Paul Teerman, Aboriginal Partnerships Specialist, CHIA NSW Jim Allen, Manager, Murra Mia, Murra Mia Aboriginal Tenants Advocacy Services.  Carolyn Doherty, CEO, Argle Housing Miranda Serkinic, Executive Manager – People, Performance and Capability, Housing Trust  Facilitator: Charlie Trindall, Operations Manager MLAHMC Ltd  DON TEA  LODGE  ary - Day One  Y: Paxon Group  untities for Community Housing cont opportunities for the community housing sector. This session will from the UK, and how these could be applied in Australia to deliver hound Housing Accord.  ISW Land and Housing Corporation  EEO, Link Wentworth	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with chollenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A ession will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for further sharing of ideas.  Bonnie Souter, Consultant Specialist Trainer, CHIA NSW Simon Wade, Director – Sector Development, ACHIA  Facilitator: Catherine Tracey, Head of Learning and Development  Il cover the state of play on the range of housing reforms, and how
14:30 - 15:00	investing in new projects. Who is leading the way? What have they learned? How do we spark the next wave? This sexion will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, recognising different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils will be facilitated to allow for an open conversation on local councils 'priorities, whot is achievable under different models, and what would be required to support new supply at a more significant scale.  Speakers: Paul Tilbrook, Director, Paxon Leonie King, CEQ, City West Lit Collyer, Strategie Partnerships Manager - AH, Landcom Mayor Michael Lyon, Byron Shire Cr Dr Elizabeth Adamczyk, Councillor, City of Newcastle  Facilitator: Will Roden  The Federal Government's housing initiatives, including the Housin	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drives of tenont satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement?  This session will present CHIA NSW's data on tenant satisfaction, with an emphasis on tenants' rights. It will feature case studies from CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outling lessons learned and ways to improve overall satisfaction. The session will conclude by considering how best practice examples can be utilised to inform a new and innovative approach in NSW.  Speaker:  Lydia Diaboha , Deputy CEO, Housing Quality Network (UK)  Adam West, Head of Business Services, CHIA NSW  Facilitator: Sarah Trant, National Manager, Communications & Engagement, Mission Australia Housing  Closing Plen  SPONSORED B  Housing State of Play - Opport  g Australia Future Fund and National Housing Accod, present significal and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include observations Future Fund and National Housing Accod, present significal and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include observations Future Fund and National Housing Accod, present signification of the Newport, CEO, Andrew McAnutty, Alex Wendler  Famey Williams, Chief Executions of the National Housing Accoders of the Play - Opport Andrew McAnutty, Alex Wendler Famey Williams, Chief Executions of the National Housing Accoders of the Play - Opport Andrew McAnutty, Alex Mendler	Aboriginal and Torres Struit Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies is the foundation to building inclusive communities.  This session will examine new approaches to sustaining tenancies by building partnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal organisations, backed by a new Memorandum of Understanding between CHPs and Aboriginal Tenants Advicacy Services.  Speakers:  Speakers:  Paul Teerman, Aboriginal Partnerships Specialist, CHIA NSW Jim Allen, Manager, Murra Mia, Murra Mia Aboriginal Tenants Advocacy Service Carolyn Obherty, CEO, Argyle Housing Mirrada Serkinic, Executive Manager – People, Performance and Capability, Housing Trust  Facilitator: Charlie Trindall, Operations Manager MLAHMC Ltd  DON TEA  LODGE  ary - Day One  Y: Paxon Group  unities for Community Housing  unities for Community Housing sector. This session will from the UK, and how these could be applied in Australia to deliver h lonal Housing Accord.  LISW Land and Housing Corporation  ECO, Link Wentworth  CEO, Landcom ivex, Aboriginal Housing Office	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with chollenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A ession will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for further sharing of ideas.  Bonnie Souter, Consultant Specialist Trainer, CHIA NSW Simon Wade, Director – Sector Development, ACHIA  Facilitator: Catherine Tracey, Head of Learning and Development  Il cover the state of play on the range of housing reforms, and how
14:30 - 15:00	investing in new projects. Who is leading the way? What have they learned? How do we spark the next wave? This sexion will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, recognising different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils will be facilitated to allow for an open conversation on local councils 'priorities, whot is achievable under different models, and what would be required to support new supply at a more significant scale.  Speakers: Paul Tilbrook, Director, Paxon Leonie King, CEQ, City West Lit Collyer, Strategie Partnerships Manager - AH, Landcom Mayor Michael Lyon, Byron Shire Cr Dr Elizabeth Adamczyk, Councillor, City of Newcastle  Facilitator: Will Roden  The Federal Government's housing initiatives, including the Housin	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drives of tenont satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement?  This session will present CHIA NSW's data on tenant satisfaction, with an emphasis on tenants' rights. It will feature case studies from CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outling lessons learned and ways to improve overall satisfaction. The session will conclude by considering how best practice examples can be utilised to inform a new and innovative approach in NSW.  Speaker:  Lydia Diaboha , Deputy CEO, Housing Quality Network (UK)  Adam West, Head of Business Services, CHIA NSW  Facilitator: Sarah Trant, National Manager, Communications & Engagement, Mission Australia Housing  Closing Plen  SPONSORED B  Housing State of Play - Opport  g Australia Future Fund and National Housing Accod, present significal and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include observations Future Fund and National Housing Accod, present significal and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include observations Future Fund and National Housing Accod, present signification of the Newport, CEO, Andrew McAnutty, Alex Wendler  Famey Williams, Chief Executions of the National Housing Accoders of the Play - Opport Andrew McAnutty, Alex Wendler Famey Williams, Chief Executions of the National Housing Accoders of the Play - Opport Andrew McAnutty, Alex Mendler	Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies is the foundation to building inclusive communities.  This session will examine new approaches to sustaining tenancies by building partnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal organisations, backed by a new Memorandum of Understanding between CHPs and Aboriginal Tenants Advices and Advacccy Services.  Speakers:  Speakers:  Speakers:  Speakers:  Speakers:  Carolyn Doherty, CEO, Argyle Housing Miranda Serkinic, Esecutive Manager – People, Performance and Capability, Housing Trust  Facilitator: Charlie Trindall, Operations Manager MLAHMC Ltd  DON TEA  LODGE  Sy - Day One  Y: Paxon Group  unities for Community Housing cont opportunities for the community housing sector. This session will from the UK, and how these could be applied in Australia to deliver hand Housing Accord.	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with chollenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A ession will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for further sharing of ideas.  Bonnie Souter, Consultant Specialist Trainer, CHIA NSW Simon Wade, Director – Sector Development, ACHIA  Facilitator: Catherine Tracey, Head of Learning and Development  Il cover the state of play on the range of housing reforms, and how
14:30 - 15:00	investing in new projects. Who is leading the way? What have they learned? How do we spark the next wave? This sexion will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, recognising different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils will be facilitated to allow for an open conversation on local councils 'priorities, whot is achievable under different models, and what would be required to support new supply at a more significant scale.  Speakers: Paul Tilbrook, Director, Paxon Leonie King, CEQ, City West Lit Collyer, Strategie Partnerships Manager - AH, Landcom Mayor Michael Lyon, Byron Shire Cr Dr Elizabeth Adamczyk, Councillor, City of Newcastle  Facilitator: Will Roden  The Federal Government's housing initiatives, including the Housin	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drives of themat satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement?  This session will present CHIA NSW's data on tenant satisfaction, with an emphasis on tenants' rights. It will feature case studies from CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outling lessons learned and ways to improve overall satisfaction. The session will conclude by considering how best practice examples can be utilised to inform a new and innovative approach in NSW.  Speaker:  Lydia Dlaboha , Deputy CEO, Housing Quality Network (UK)  Adam West, Head of Business Services, CHIA NSW  Facilitator: Sarah Trant, National Manager, Communications & Engagement, Mission Australia Housing  AFTERN  GRANT  Closing Plen  SPONSORED B  Housing State of Play - Opport of Andrew Changer of Play - Opport of Andrew McAnulty, Andrew McAnulty, Andrew McAnulty, Andrew McAnulty, Alex Wendler Famey Williams, Chief Execu	Aboriginal cand Torres Strait Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies is the foundation to building inclusive communities.  This session will examine new opproaches to sustaining tenancies by building partnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal organisations, backed by a new Memorandum of Understanding between CHPs and Aboriginal Tenants Advicacy Services.  Speakers:  Paul Teerman, Aboriginal Partnerships Specialist, CHIA NSW Jim Allen, Manager, Murra Mia, Murra Mia Aboriginal Tenants Advocacy Service Carolyn Obherty, CEO, Argyle Housing Miranda Serkinic, Executive Manager – People, Performance and Capability, Housing Trust  Facilitator: Charlie Trindall, Operations Manager MLAHMC Ltd  DON TEA  LODGE  ary - Day One  Y: Paxon Group  untites for Community Housing  cont opportunities for the community housing sector. This session will from the UK, and how these could be applied in Australia to deliver honal Housing Accord.  ISW Land and Housing Corporation  EEO, Link Wentworth  CEO, Landcom  Live, Aboriginal Housing Office  Bridge Housing, and Chair, CHIA NSW	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with chollenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A ession will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for further sharing of ideas.  Bonnie Souter, Consultant Specialist Trainer, CHIA NSW Simon Wade, Director – Sector Development, ACHIA  Facilitator: Catherine Tracey, Head of Learning and Development  Il cover the state of play on the range of housing reforms, and how
14:30 - 15:00	investing in new projects. Who is leading the way? What have they learned? How do we spark the next wave? This sexion will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, recognising different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils will be facilitated to allow for an open conversation on local councils 'priorities, whot is achievable under different models, and what would be required to support new supply at a more significant scale.  Speakers: Paul Tilbrook, Director, Paxon Leonie King, CEQ, City West Lit Collyer, Strategie Partnerships Manager - AH, Landcom Mayor Michael Lyon, Byron Shire Cr Dr Elizabeth Adamczyk, Councillor, City of Newcastle  Facilitator: Will Roden  The Federal Government's housing initiatives, including the Housin	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drives of themat satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement?  This session will present CHIA NSW's data on tenant satisfaction, with an emphasis on tenants' rights. It will feature case studies from CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outling lessons learned and ways to improve overall satisfaction. The session will conclude by considering how best practice examples can be utilised to inform a new and innovative approach in NSW.  Speaker:  Lydia Diaboha , Deputy CEO, Housing Quality Network (UK)  Adam West, Head of Business Services, CHIA NSW  Facilitator: Sarah Trant, National Manager, Communications & Engagement, Mission Australia Housing  AFTERN  GRANT  Closing Plen  SPONSORED B  Housing State of Play - Opport  g Australia Future Fund and National Housing Accord, present significial and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include observations Future Fund and National Housing Accord, present significial and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include observations Alex Wendler  Famey Williams, Chief Execu	Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies is the foundation to building inclusive communities.  This session will examine new approaches to sustaining tenancies by building partnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal organisations, backed by a new Memorandum of Understanding between CHPs and Aboriginal Tenants Advices and Advacccy Services.  Speakers:  Speakers:  Speakers:  Speakers:  Speakers:  Carolyn Doherty, CEO, Argyle Housing Mirand Saerkini, Esecutive Manager – People, Performance and Capability, Housing Trust  Facilitator: Charlie Trindall, Operations Manager MLAHMC Ltd  DOON TEA  DOOGE  Styr — Day One  Y: Paxon Group  unities for Community Housing control opportunities for the community housing sector. This session will from the UK, and how these could be applied in Austrolia to deliver honal Housing Accord.  ISW Land and Housing Corporation  EEO, Link Wentworth  CEO, Lankcom  live, Aboriginal Housing Office  Bridge Housing, and Chair, CHIA NSW	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with chollenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A ession will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for further sharing of ideas.  Bonnie Souter, Consultant Specialist Trainer, CHIA NSW Simon Wade, Director – Sector Development, ACHIA  Facilitator: Catherine Tracey, Head of Learning and Development  Il cover the state of play on the range of housing reforms, and how
14:30 - 15:00 15:00 - 16:30	investing in new projects. Who is leading the way? What have they learned? How do we spark the next wave? This sexion will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, recognising different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils will be facilitated to allow for an open conversation on local councils 'priorities, whot is achievable under different models, and what would be required to support new supply at a more significant scale.  Speakers: Paul Tilbrook, Director, Paxon Leonie King, CEQ, City West Lit Collyer, Strategie Partnerships Manager - AH, Landcom Mayor Michael Lyon, Byron Shire Cr Dr Elizabeth Adamczyk, Councillor, City of Newcastle  Facilitator: Will Roden  The Federal Government's housing initiatives, including the Housin	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drives of tenont satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement?  This session will present CHIA NSW's data on tenant satisfaction, with an emphasis on tenants' rights. It will feature case studies from CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outling Jessons learned and ways to improve overall satisfaction. The session will conclude by considering how best practice examples can be utilised to inform a new and innovative approach in NSW.  Speaker:  Lydia Diaboha , Deputy CEO, Housing Quality Network (UK)  Adam West, Head of Business Services, CHIA NSW  Facilitator: Sarah Trant, National Manager, Communications & Engagement, Mission Australia Housing  AFTERN  GRANI  Closing Plen  SPONSORED B  Housing State of Play - Opport  g Australia Future Fund and National Housing Accord, present significial and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include observations Future Fund and National Housing Accord, present significial and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include observations Future Fund and National Housing Accord, present significial and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include observations Future Fund and National Housing Accord, present significial and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include observations Future Fund and National Housing Accord, present significial and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include observations.  Speaker:  Facilitator: Rebecca Pinkstone, CEO, Facilitator: Rebecca Pinkstone, CEO, Facilitator: Rebecca Pinkstone, CEO, PAY OF Sponsor session his providers and provider	Aboriginal and Torres Struit Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies is the foundation to building inclusive communities.  This session will examine new approaches to sustaining tenancies by building partnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal organisations, backed by a new Memorandum of Understanding between CHPs and Aboriginal Tenants Advicacy Services.  Speakers:  Paul Teerman, Aboriginal Partnerships Specialist, CHIA NSW Jim Allen, Manager, Murra Mia, Murra Mia Aboriginal Tenants Advocacy Service Carolyn Obherty, CEO, Argyle Housing Mirrada Serkinic, Executive Manager – People, Performance and Capability, Housing Trust  Facilitator: Charlie Trindall, Operations Manager MLAHMC Ltd  DON TEA  LODGE  ary - Day One  Y: Paxon Group  unities for Community Housing and opportunities for the community housing sector. This session will from the UK, and how these could be applied in Australia to deliver housel Housing Accord.  LISW Land and Housing Corporation  ECO, Link Wentworth  ECO, Landcom  ivex, Aboriginal Housing Office  Bridge Housing, and Chair, CHIA NSW	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with chollenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A ession will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for further sharing of ideas.  Bonnie Souter, Consultant Specialist Trainer, CHIA NSW Simon Wade, Director – Sector Development, ACHIA  Facilitator: Catherine Tracey, Head of Learning and Development  Il cover the state of play on the range of housing reforms, and how
14:30 - 15:00	investing in new projects. Who is leading the way? What have they learned? How do we spark the next wave? This sexion will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, recognising different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils will be facilitated to allow for an open conversation on local councils 'priorities, whot is achievable under different models, and what would be required to support new supply at a more significant scale.  Speakers: Paul Tilbrook, Director, Paxon Leonie King, CEQ, City West Lit Collyer, Strategie Partnerships Manager - AH, Landcom Mayor Michael Lyon, Byron Shire Cr Dr Elizabeth Adamczyk, Councillor, City of Newcastle  Facilitator: Will Roden  The Federal Government's housing initiatives, including the Housin	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drives of themat satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement?  This session will present CHIA NSW's data on tenant satisfaction, with an emphasis on tenants' rights. It will feature case studies from CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outling lessons learned and ways to improve overall satisfaction. The session will conclude by considering how best practice examples can be utilised to inform a new and innovative approach in NSW.  Speaker:  Lydia Diaboha , Deputy CEO, Housing Quality Network (UK)  Adam West, Head of Business Services, CHIA NSW  Facilitator: Sarah Trant, National Manager, Communications & Engagement, Mission Australia Housing  AFTERN  GRANT  Closing Plen  SPONSORED B  Housing State of Play - Opport  g Australia Future Fund and National Housing Accord, present significial and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include observations future Fund and National Housing Accord, present significial and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include observations Alax Wendler  Famey Williams, Chief Execu  Facilitator: Rebecca Plinkstone, CEO,  Andrew McAnulty, Alax Wendler  Famey Williams, Chief Execu	Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies is the foundation to building inclusive communities.  This session will examine new approaches to sustaining tenancies by building partnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal organisations, backed by a new Memorandum of Understanding between CHPs and Aboriginal Tenants Advices and Advacccy Services.  Speakers:  Speakers:  Speakers:  Speakers:  Speakers:  Carolyn Doherty, CEO, Argyle Housing Mirand Saerkini, Esecutive Manager – People, Performance and Capability, Housing Trust  Facilitator: Charlie Trindall, Operations Manager MLAHMC Ltd  DOON TEA  DOOGE  Styr — Day One  Y: Paxon Group  unities for Community Housing control opportunities for the community housing sector. This session will from the UK, and how these could be applied in Austrolia to deliver honal Housing Accord.  ISW Land and Housing Corporation  EEO, Link Wentworth  CEO, Lankcom  live, Aboriginal Housing Office  Bridge Housing, and Chair, CHIA NSW	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with chollenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A ession will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for further sharing of ideas.  Bonnie Souter, Consultant Specialist Trainer, CHIA NSW Simon Wade, Director – Sector Development, ACHIA  Facilitator: Catherine Tracey, Head of Learning and Development  Il cover the state of play on the range of housing reforms, and how
14:30 - 15:00 15:00 - 16:30	investing in new projects. Who is leading the way? What have they learned? How do we spark the next wave? This sexion will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, recognising different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils will be facilitated to allow for an open conversation on local councils 'priorities, whot is achievable under different models, and what would be required to support new supply at a more significant scale.  Speakers: Paul Tilbrook, Director, Paxon Leonie King, CEQ, City West Lit Collyer, Strategie Partnerships Manager - AH, Landcom Mayor Michael Lyon, Byron Shire Cr Dr Elizabeth Adamczyk, Councillor, City of Newcastle  Facilitator: Will Roden  The Federal Government's housing initiatives, including the Housin	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drives of tenant satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement?  This session will present CHIA NSW's data on tenant satisfaction, with an emphasis on tenants' rights. It will feature case studies from CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outling lessons learned and ways to improve overall satisfaction. The session will conclude by considering how best practice examples can be utilised to inform a new and innovative approach in NSW.  Speaker:  Lydia Diaboha , Deputy CEO, Housing Quality Network (UK)  Adam West, Head of Business Services, CHIA NSW  Facilitator: Sarah Trant, National Manager, Communications & Engagement, Mission Australia Housing  AFTERN  GRANI  Closing Plen  SPONSORED B  Housing State of Play - Opport  g Australia Future Fund and National Housing Accord, present significial and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include observations Future Fund and National Housing Accord, present significial and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include observations Future Fund and National Housing Accord, present significial and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include observations Future Fund and National Housing Accord, present significial and affordable housing in NSW. It will also include observations.  Speakers: Simon Newport, CEO, I Andrew McAnulty, Alex Wendler Famey Williams, Chief Execution Speakers: Simon Newport, CEO, I Sponsor session he Lanacom Loung Speaker: Janelle Goulding, Busines.	Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies is the foundation to building inclusive communities.  This session will examine new approaches to sustaining tenancies by building partnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal organisations, backed by a new Memorandum of Understanding between CHPs and Aboriginal Tenants Advicacy Services.  Speakers:  Paul Teerman, Aboriginal Partnerships Specialist, CHIA NSW Jim Allen, Manager, Murra Mia, Murra Mia Aboriginal Tenants Advocacy Service Carolyn Doherty, CEO, Argyle Housing Mirrada Serkinic, Executive Manager – People, Performance and Capability, Housing Trust  Facilitator: Charlie Trindall, Operations Manager MLAHMC Ltd  DOON TEA  LODGE  ary - Day One  Y: Paxon Group  unities for Community Housing sector. This session wil from the UK, and how these could be applied in Australia to deliver h ional Housing Accord.  EEO, Link Wentworth  EEO, Link Operations of Community Housing Sector. This session will from the UK, and how these could be applied in Australia to deliver h ional Housing Accord.  Six Mand and Housing Corporation  EEO, Link Wentworth  CEO, Landcom  ive, Aboriginal Housing Office  Bridge Housing, and Chair, CHIA NSW  IE CLOSE  sted by: LANDCOM  e - Marable Foyer.  5 Development. Affordable Housing  te Dinner	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with chollenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A ession will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for further sharing of ideas.  Bonnie Souter, Consultant Specialist Trainer, CHIA NSW Simon Wade, Director – Sector Development, ACHIA  Facilitator: Catherine Tracey, Head of Learning and Development  Il cover the state of play on the range of housing reforms, and how
14:30 - 15:00 15:00 - 16:30	investing in new projects. Who is leading the way? What have they learned? How do we spark the next wave? This sexion will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, recognising different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils will be facilitated to allow for an open conversation on local councils 'priorities, whot is achievable under different models, and what would be required to support new supply at a more significant scale.  Speakers: Paul Tilbrook, Director, Paxon Leonie King, CEQ, City West Lit Collyer, Strategie Partnerships Manager - AH, Landcom Mayor Michael Lyon, Byron Shire Cr Dr Elizabeth Adamczyk, Councillor, City of Newcastle  Facilitator: Will Roden  The Federal Government's housing initiatives, including the Housin	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drives of themat satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement?  This session will present CHIA NSW's data on tenant satisfaction, with an emphasion entenant's rights. It will feature case studies from CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outling lessons learned and ways to improve overall satisfaction. The session will conclude by considering how best practice examples can be utilised to Inform a new and innovative approach in NSW.  Speaker:  Lydia Diaboha , Deputy CEO, Housing Quality Network (UK)  Adam West, Head off Business Services, CHIA NSW  Facilitator: Sarah Trant, National Manager, Communications & Engagement, Mission Australia Housing  AFTERN  GRANT  Closing Plen  SPONSORED B  Housing State of Play - Opport  g Australia Future Fund and National Housing Accord, present significial and offordable housing in NSW. It will also include observations future Fund and National Housing Accord, present significial and offordable housing in NSW. It will also include observations Alex Wendler  Fareney Williams, Chief Execut  Facilitator: Rebecca Pinkstone, CEO,  Andrew McAnulty,  Alex Wendler  Famey Williams, Chief Execut  Facilitator: Rebecca Pinkstone, CEO,  DAY Of  Sponsor session humons, Speaker: Janelle Goulding, Businese  Conference Docksiele.	Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies is the foundation to building inclusive communities.  This session will examine new approaches to sustaining tenancies by building partnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal organisations, backed by a new Memorandum of Understanding between CHPs and Aboriginal Tenants Advicacy Services.  Speakers:  Speakers:  Speakers:  Speakers:  Speakers:  Carolyn Doherty, CEO, Argyle Housing Mirand Serkinic, Esecutive Manager – People, Performance and Capability, Housing Trust  Facilitator: Charlie Trindall, Operations Manager MLAHMC Ltd  DON TEA  DON TEA  DON TEA  DON TEA  CODITION  TO THE COMMUNITY HOUSING SERVICES OF THE SESSION WILLIAM OF THE SESSION OF THE SESS	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with chollenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A ession will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for further sharing of ideas.  Bonnie Souter, Consultant Specialist Trainer, CHIA NSW Simon Wade, Director – Sector Development, ACHIA  Facilitator: Catherine Tracey, Head of Learning and Development  Il cover the state of play on the range of housing reforms, and how
14:30 - 15:00 15:00 - 16:30 16:30 - 17:30	investing in new projects. Who is leading the way? What have they learned? How do we spark the next wave? This sexion will compare outcomes from different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils, recognising different models (in a way that is engaging for local councils will be facilitated to allow for an open conversation on local councils 'priorities, whot is achievable under different models, and what would be required to support new supply at a more significant scale.  Speakers: Paul Tilbrook, Director, Paxon Leonie King, CEQ, City West Lit Collyer, Strategie Partnerships Manager - AH, Landcom Mayor Michael Lyon, Byron Shire Cr Dr Elizabeth Adamczyk, Councillor, City of Newcastle  Facilitator: Will Roden  The Federal Government's housing initiatives, including the Housin	of community housing providers (CHPs). How can data be used by CHPs to understand the drives of themat satisfaction and inform their approach to engagement?  This session will present CHIA NSW's data on tenant satisfaction, with an emphasion entenant's rights. It will feature case studies from CHPs in Australia (NSW and Victoria) and United Kingdom outling lessons learned and ways to improve overall satisfaction. The session will conclude by considering how best practice examples can be utilised to Inform a new and innovative approach in NSW.  Speaker:  Lydia Diaboha , Deputy CEO, Housing Quality Network (UK)  Adam West, Head off Business Services, CHIA NSW  Facilitator: Sarah Trant, National Manager, Communications & Engagement, Mission Australia Housing  AFTERN  GRANT  Closing Plen  SPONSORED B  Housing State of Play - Opport  g Australia Future Fund and National Housing Accord, present significial and offordable housing in NSW. It will also include observations future Fund and National Housing Accord, present significial and offordable housing in NSW. It will also include observations Alex Wendler  Fareney Williams, Chief Execut  Facilitator: Rebecca Pinkstone, CEO,  Andrew McAnulty,  Alex Wendler  Famey Williams, Chief Execut  Facilitator: Rebecca Pinkstone, CEO,  DAY Of  Sponsor session humons, Speaker: Janelle Goulding, Businese  Conference Docksiele.	Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community housing tenancies and recognise that sustaining tenancies is the foundation to building inclusive communities.  This session will examine new approaches to sustaining tenancies by building partnerships between CHPs and Aboriginal organisations, backed by a new Memorandum of Understanding between CHPs and Aboriginal Tenants Advicacy Services.  Speakers:  Paul Teerman, Aboriginal Partnerships Specialist, CHIA NSW Jim Allen, Manager, Murra Mia, Murra Mia Aboriginal Tenants Advocacy Service Carolyn Doherty, CEO, Argyle Housing Mirrada Serkinic, Executive Manager – People, Performance and Capability, Housing Trust  Facilitator: Charlie Trindall, Operations Manager MLAHMC Ltd  DOON TEA  LODGE  ary - Day One  Y: Paxon Group  unities for Community Housing sector. This session wil from the UK, and how these could be applied in Australia to deliver h ional Housing Accord.  EEO, Link Wentworth  EEO, Link Operations of Community Housing Sector. This session will from the UK, and how these could be applied in Australia to deliver h ional Housing Accord.  Six Mand and Housing Corporation  EEO, Link Wentworth  CEO, Landcom  ive, Aboriginal Housing Office  Bridge Housing, and Chair, CHIA NSW  IE CLOSE  sted by: LANDCOM  e - Marable Foyer.  5 Development. Affordable Housing  te Dinner	behaviours. Hear from experts in the field discuss their strategies for dealing with customers with chollenging behaviours and how to promote conversations that lead to positive customer service for everyone. A Q & A ession will open up the conversation to all participants to explore the strategies put forward and to allow for further sharing of ideas.  Bonnie Souter, Consultant Specialist Trainer, CHIA NSW Simon Wade, Director – Sector Development, ACHIA  Facilitator: Catherine Tracey, Head of Learning and Development  Il cover the state of play on the range of housing reforms, and how

COMMUNITY HOUSING 2023

SYDNEY MASONIC CENTRE | 10 - 11 MAY 2023

Thursday 11 May 2023

Illursuay 11 Ivia	·,
7:30	REGISTATION OPEN  GRAND LODGE
8:15 - 8:20	GRAND LODGE  Welcome and introduction
	wercome and introduction
8:20 - 8:40 8:40 - 10:15	Plenary Session 3 - The other crisis: the impacts of climate change on community housing  Climate change is already having a range of social, economic, and environmental impacts across NSW. Community housing providers will need to adapt and respond to these impacts in order to continue to provide safe and secure housing to their tenants. This will include decarbonisation of the housing they manage to achieve net-zero emissions targets. This session will explore the climate-related risks and opportunities facing the sector, and how community housing providers can take the lead on climate action.  Speakers: Meg McDonald, Environment Commissioner, Greater Cities Commission  Professor Dave Adamson, Group Chief Strategic Engagement Officer, Home In Place
	Margot Black, General Manager, Corporate Sustainability, Investa  Facilitator: Scott Langford, CEO, SGCH
10:15 - 10:45		MORN	ING TEA
	GRAND LODGE	IONIC	DORIC	CORINTHIAN
10:45 - 12:00	Rethinking social housing estate renewal  The renewol of public housing estates presents an apportunity to deliver more and better housing, However, past approaches to rebuilding estates have raised concerns around the loss of public housing, the self-off public land, and displacement of existing communities.  This session is intended to explore how estate renewal could be better delivered and the role that community housing providers could play in driving better outcomes.  Speakers:  Renee Wirth, Group Executive Customers, SGCH Simon Robinson, Managing Director, OFFICE Professors Bill Randolph, City Future Research Centre, UNSW Facilitator: Michael Carnuccio, Senior Policy Officer, CHIA NSW	Customer Service and Digital Transformation  Digital channels offer opportunities to transform services for  tenants. But how do we make sure that we choose the right mix of  digital services and that no one is left behind? This session will  explore best practice in digital outsomer service and engagement  and the results of a major project on digital transformation jointly  delivered by CHIA NSW and CHIA Victoria. The session will include  international case study examples and detailed guidance for  emborking on a digital transformation project.  Speakers:  Roger Jameson, Director, Housing Information Solutions  Brett Wilson, Chief Information Officer, Red Cross Australia  Facilitator: Adam West, Head of Business Services, CHIA NSW	The future of community and tenant engagement  Community housing providers are committed to working in portnership with relevant organisations to deliver community and tenant engagement initiatives as part of their core business. This session will examine how best practice initiatives can be used to drive better outcomes for current and future tenants residing in co- operative commanity housing and (mainstream) community housing in NSW.  Speakers:  AlProf Louise Crabtree-Hayes, University of Western Sydney Nick Sabel, ECD, Common Equity Jesses Taylor, Community Development Manager - Mid North Coast, Mission Australia Steve Neale, Community Development Manager, Community Housing Limited Michaelle Painer, Community Participation Officer, Home in Place Yomne Jenkins, Tenant Representative, BRANCH co-op Facilitator: Catilin McDowell, Head of Policy, CHA NSW	So you want a career in housing  Stoffing – the constant conversation in the industry – not enough stoff, recruiting the right stoff and too much work. This session will showcase how to develop o vibrant, passionate and connected community of professional housing workers. Hear from employment experts about techniques to develop intentional career development learning, career mapping over time and managing career development in the rapidly changing labour market.  Emma Coakes, Consultant, EC Consulting and Design Cara MacDougall, Manager Cadesthip, CHIA NSW Simon Wade, Director – Sector Development, ACHIA Facilitator: Catherine Tracey, Head of Learning and Development, CHIA NSW
		LUI	NCH
12:00 - 13:00	LUNCH  Sponsor session hosted by BlueCHP: HIF, HAFF & BOP – How not to get burnt  Speakers: Charles Northcote (ECD) & Monthew Whiteley (EFD)  DOIL Room
	SPONSORED BY: Community Housing Ltd Mixed Tenure Futures - Opportunities or opportunities lost? Community housing providers are delivering mixed tenure developments across NSW to both stretch subsides further and to meet support mixed communities. Recent research from Aldos Economics and Clal NSW showed both the significant return potential and the significant equity investment required for mixed tenure projects. To what extent do mixed tenure developments deliver better social and economic outcomes for communities?  Speakers: lan lynch, CEO, Pacific Link Housing Lyall Gorman, CEO, Evolve Housing Esther Cheong, Director, Atlas Economics Ryan van den Nouwelant, UNSW  Facilitator: Robyn Evans, General Manager, BaptistCare NSW/ACT	SPONSORED BY: Community Housing Ltd Futureproofing Asset Management Masterclass - Lessons from housing providers operating at scale  How do you future proof your asset management plans? In this session, we will hear from international asset management expert Kevin Bentley direct from the UK on the opproaches doubted to housing association maintenance, including approaches to stock condition, stock sustainability and modelling and linkages to long term business planning. The masterclass will unpack key elements and best practice in an asset management strategy, including managing for growth and achieving value for money in a resource constrained environment.  Speakers: Kevin Bentley, Procurement Consultant, Housing Quality Network (UK) Facilitator: Adam West, Head of Business Services, CHIA NSW	SPONSORED BY: BlueCHP ESG for Boards Increasingly, the approach that community housing providers take to measure and report on their environmental, social and governance (ESG) outcomes is critical to securing investment, informing decisions, and providing transparency to stokeholders. This session will discuss the role of boards in ESG and how community housing providers embed ESG in agrainational governance to ensure effective oversight occurs. An overview of the new ESG reporting standard for CHPs will also be provided.  Speakers: Marcus Spiller, Principal and Partner, SGS Economics and Planning Michelle Ijondo, Associate, SGS Economics and Planning Eliis Balkiec, Executive Officer Advocacy and Impact, Bridge Housing Alex O'Mara, Non-executive Dricer, SGCH Catherine Maxwell, General Manager, Policy and Advocacy, Governance Instruct of Australia Facilitator: Mike Allen PSM, Independent Chair, Link Wentworth	CORINTHIAN  Advocacy that works: Lessons learned from the NSW State Election and Local Government Election  Recent elections hove provided critical apportunities for the community housing sector to raise awareness of the housing vulnerability crisis and advocate for an increased supply of social and affordable housing in NSW through media, advocacy, and political engagement activities.  Community housing providers have been at the forefront of advocacy efforts in the local communities. This session will showcase a case study of a community housing provider that has adopted a grassroots apprach to advocacy and partnerships to engage with local councils, state MPs, business chambers and local media.  The session will use a panel discussion to explore the strategic trends and apportunities for the industry to effectively influence political decision-makers using media, communications and advocacy activities over the four-year state electoral cycle.  Speakers:  Michele Adair, CEO, Housing Trust Caitlin McDowell, Head of Policy, CHA NSW
				Eamon Waterford, CEO, Committee for Sydney Mark Chase Sillars, Tenant Advocate to Genener, Office Communications officer, Link Wentworth Housing Facilitator: Lucinda Bourke, Head of Collaboration, Social Enterprise Finance Australia
14:15 - 14:45		AFTERN	OON TEA	Eamon Waterford, CED, Committee for Sydney Marie Chase Sillars, Tenant Advocate Eva Gerencer, Chief Communications Officer, Link Wentworth Housing Facilitator: Lucinda Bourke, Head of Collaboration, Social Enterprise
14:15 - 14:45		GRANE	LODGE	Eamon Waterford, CED, Committee for Sydney Marie Chase Sillars, Tenant Advocate Eva Gerencer, Chief Communications Officer, Link Wentworth Housing Facilitator: Lucinda Bourke, Head of Collaboration, Social Enterprise
14:15 - 14:45 14:45 - 15:45		GRANE  Closing Plen  Keynote Presentation - Bridging the ga  Nour, on his leadership and advocacy as the Founder of Stree  Street Side Medics seeks to break down barriers faced by p  Speaker: Dr Daniel Nour, Founder, Street Side		Eamon Waterford, CEO, Committee for Sydney Marie Chase Silns, Teanat Advocate Eva Gerencer, Chief Communications Officer, Link Wentworth Housing  Facilitator: Lucinda Bourke, Head of Collaboration, Social Enterprise Finance Australia  GP led, mobile medical service for people experiencing
		GRANE  Closing Plen  Keynote Presentation - Bridging the ga  Nour, on his leadership and advocacy as the Founder of Stree  Street Side Medics seeks to break down barriers faced by p  Speaker: Dr Daniel Nour, Founder, Street Side  Facilitator: Debbie Georgopoulos	ary - Day Two  p between homelessness and healthcare  it Side Medics, a not-for-profit organisation delivering a free, eople experiencing homelessness to accessing primary healt.  Medics and Young Australian of the Year 2022	Eamon Waterford, CEO, Committee for Sydney Marie Chase Silns, Teanat Advocate Eva Gerencer, Chief Communications Officer, Link Wentworth Housing  Facilitator: Lucinda Bourke, Head of Collaboration, Social Enterprise Finance Australia  GP led, mobile medical service for people experiencing			